

Mercer County, KY

March 01, 1812

Journal entry of Wednesday, March 1, 1812

There was a slight shock of an earthquake felt here about three o'clock this morning.

Comment

The above journal entry was found in the Shaker record collection in the archives section of the King Library on the University of Kentucky campus.